MONTANA GOVERNOR'S COUNCIL ON HISTORIC AND CULTURAL PROPERTIES

REPORT TO THE 60TH LEGISLATURE 2007

On August 15, 2005 Governor Schweitzer signed Executive Order 18 creating a seven-member Historic and Cultural Advisory Council. Chaired by Lt. Governor John Bohlinger, the Council was charged with studying the benefits of historic preservation and formulating recommendations to the Governor and the 2007 Legislature concerning the State of Montana's policies on the preservation of publicly-owned historic buildings. The Council also identified opportunities for communities to use historic preservation as an economic development tool.
